

ADM 150-154 : Technical Co-operative Education

Students work on a part-time basis in a job directly related to applied technologies. The employer and supervising instructor evaluate students' progress. Upon course completion, students will be able to apply skills and knowledge in an employment setting.

Credits 5