

MTT 244 : CNC Turning Lab II

This course covers advanced computer numeric control (CNC) turning machine set-up and operating procedures. Upon completion, the student should be able to load a CNC program and set-up and operate a CNC turning machine to produce a specified part. Related safety and inspection and process adjustment are also covered.

Credits 3

Experimental Laboratory Credit

6

Corequisites

MTT 212 or Permission of instructor