

PTA 221 : Kinesiology Lab

This laboratory course allows for a hands on appreciation of functional anatomy and kinesiology. Emphasis may include muscle and joint function, ROM/strength testing, palpation skills and exercise concepts. Upon completion, the student should be able to integrate content areas into an understanding of normal gait posture and movement patterns.

Credits 1

Skills Laboratory/Clinical Practice

3

Corequisites

PTA 220