

PCT 105 : Process Technology I - Equipment

This course provides an overview or introduction into the field of process technology equipment within the process industry. Students will be introduced to many process industry related equipment concepts including purpose, components, operation, and Process Technicians' role for operating and troubleshooting the equipment.

Credits 4

Theory Credit

3

Experimental Laboratory Credit

2

Prerequisites

A grade of C or better in PCT 100