

Traffic and Parking Regulations

Every effort is being made to help students have a place to park while attending classes. Complete cooperation among drivers is requested. All students who drive motor vehicles on any of Calhoun Community College's sites are responsible for knowing and abiding by parking/traffic regulations.