

DHY 110 : Dental Hygiene Theory

This course is an introduction to dental hygiene theory including process of care with emphasis on professionalism, basic instrumentation skills and patient assessment processes. Upon completion, students will be able to apply the basic theory of dental hygiene to patient care and utilize this knowledge as a rationale for treatment provided.

Credits 2

Theory Credit

2

Prerequisites

Admission to the Dental Hygiene Program

Corequisites

DHY 112

DHY 114

DHY 116

DHY 118