

DHY 132 : Clinical Dental Hygiene II

This course advances students to higher levels of dental hygiene treatment. Emphasis is placed on refining of instrumentation skills, application of individualized treatment in relation to special needs of patients and utilization of power scaling during patient treatment. Upon completion, students will improve their patient assessment skills and instrumentation skills during comprehensive dental hygiene treatment.

Credits 2

Skills Laboratory/Clinical Practice

2

Prerequisites

DHY 120

DHY 122

DHY 124

DHY 126

DHY 128

Corequisites

DHY 130

DHY 134

DHY 216