

Intellectual Property for Students

All student work submitted as a requirement for course credit is the intellectual property of that student and the student may use or publish his/ her work without any authorization from the College.

The student must obtain written consent from the College in order to use or publish material of which the student is neither the author nor the collaborator.