

Alabama Transfers

In order to assist Calhoun Community College students with the transferring of courses to other institutions of higher education in the state, Calhoun is a full member in Alabama Transfers (formerly known as STARS).

The transfer agreement has been created to inform students of the courses that they can take and transfer among public institutions within the State of Alabama without losing credit. Go to the Alabama Transfers website at Alabama Transfers.