

Student Disciplinary Procedures

Students are guaranteed procedural due process in all cases involving formal discipline charges. College disciplinary procedures are designed to assure a student's right to procedural and substantive due process and to the fullest extent feasible, safeguard personal and confidential information concerning the student.

Certain campus administrators who reasonably determine that a student's presence on campus presents a threat to the safety and security of the College community or is disruptive of the educational environment or efficient operation of the College may require the student to vacate campus properties until an administrative hearing can be held on the student's removal from campus. The administrative hearing shall be held not later than the third business day following the student's removal from campus. Campus administrators who may remove students from campus include the President, Vice President of Student Services, and Chief of Police.
