

ACR 135: Mechanical Gas Safety Codes

This course is to enhance the student's knowledge of the Southern Mechanical and Gas Code as well as fire and job safety requirements. Emphasis is placed on code book content and compliance with installation requirements. Upon completion, students should be able to apply code requirements to all work.

Credits: 3

Program: Air Conditioning and Refrigeration

Theory Credit: 3