

ART 126: Color

This course introduces the student to the fundamentals of color and color uses. Topics include various color theories, technical skills in mixing color, types of pigment and the expressive uses of color. Upon completion, students should be able to explain and demonstrate a fundamental understanding of color as it is used in the development of assigned color problems.

Code C

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ART 113 or Permission of instructor

Subject: Art

Experimental Laboratory Credit: 6