

BUS 247: Financial Markets and Institutions

This course serves as an overview of the financial system. Topics include the time value of money, the behavior and structure of interest rates, the role of the Federal Reserve System, debt and equity markets, and the organization and regulation of financial markets and institutions.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ECO 231

Program: Business Administration

Theory Credit: 3