

DAT 122 : Clinical Practice II

This course is designed to provide the student the opportunity to develop advanced dental assisting skills in chairside dental assisting procedures, radiology, team work, communication skills and administrative duties. Emphasis will be placed on clinical procedures. Upon completion, students should be able to demonstrate proficiency in the area of chairside assisting.

Credits 4

Preceptorship Credits

163

Prerequisites

DAT 100, DAT 101, DAT 102, DAT 103, DAT 104, DAT 111, DAT 112, DAT 113 and DAT 116

Corequisites

DAT 123