

ELT 110: Wiring Methods

This course is a study of various tasks, wiring methods, materials, and associated NEC (National Electric Code) requirements that students will be required to work with in residential and commercial wiring courses.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

A grade of C or better in ELT 108 AND ELT 109

Program: Electrical Technology

Experimental Laboratory Credit: 4

Theory Credit: 1