

EMS 103: First Aid

This course introduces students to initial first aid care. Topics include scene safety, universal precautions, activation of the EMS system, assessment, airway/breathing/circulation, shock/ injuries/bleeding, medical emergencies, and altered level of consciousness. Upon course completion, students should have knowledge to manage various emergencies requiring first aid techniques.

Credits: 1

Prerequisites:

Current training in CPR and/or as required by program.

Program: Emergency Medical Services

Theory Credit: 1