

NUR 211 : Advanced Nursing Concepts

This course provides opportunities for students to integrate advanced nursing care concepts within a family and community context. Content includes, but are not limited to, management of care for advanced concepts in safety, fluid/electrolyte balance, cellular regulation, gas exchange, psychosocial well being, growth and development, perfusion, and medical emergencies. NUR 221 ADVANCED EVIDENCED BASED CLINICAL REASONING (3T, 12C) 7 credits This course provides students with opportunities to demonstrate graduate competencies through didactic and preceptorship experiences necessary to transition to the profession of nursing. Content in nursing and healthcare domains includes management of care, professionalism, and healthcare delivery systems.

Credits 7

Theory Credit

4

Skills Laboratory/Clinical Practice

9