

VCM 251: Technical Illustration

This course focuses on renderings prepared for industry. Various techniques are used to illustrate charts, graphs, perspective and axonometric drawings and enhanced assembly views. Upon completion, students should be able to apply design principles to technical drawings and highly creative drawings using technical skills.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

VCM 250

Program: Visual Communications

Experimental Laboratory Credit: 2

Theory Credit: 2