

Office Management A.A.S. Concentration

The Office Management AAS concentration can provide you with skills in accounting, office productivity software, and communications that can help you start or build your career as an office manager. All required courses are available online, and many are also offered in a traditional classroom format. Coursework is included that helps prepare you for the Microsoft Excel and Word Expert certifications.

Students choosing to pursue the Medical Billing career path should substitute the courses indicated. Completion of those four courses also satisfies the requirements for the Medical Billing Essentials short-term certificate. This program is designed to help prepare the you for the Certified Medical Reimbursement Specialist certification.
